THE JITNEYS ON THE RUN

Nearly two years ago when the Northgate Transit Co. delegates were jockeying for the city's blessings to operate their jitneys here, we expressed vigorous opposition to the introduction of that type of transportation here.

We opposed jitneys on the grounds that the type of vehicle to be operated was inadequate and because of the questionable financial backing of the promoters.

Now the fledgling company, which operates with shabby-looking vehicles and something only remotely resembling a time schedule, seeks to "bite the hand that feeds it" by branching out its operation to San Francisco.

We don't profess to clairvoyancy but it was easy enough to see in spring of 1955 that the jitneys were no blue chip enterprise.

Perhaps with years of building the jitney firm might develop into a prosperous and efficient organization that could fill Daly City's transportation needs.

But with less than two years behind it, the company is in no physical or financial condition to begin spreading thin its resources.

If there's going to be new vehicles and faster service, the Daly City-Broadmoor residents who have backed the system since its inception should reap the rewards.

When the jitneys have shown the ability to adequately handle their original "benefactors" then it might be time to start branching out.

CLERKS at Daly City's Motor Vehicle Office, 6165 Mission street, got the "business" as expected Saturday and Monday as the habitual late comers stood in long lines to renew their licenses. Officials were swamped right up to closing time. Folks who missed Monday's deadline now face delinquent penalties, some of them hitting as high as 100 percent.

The Great Register

22,000 MOTORISTS SIGN UP HERE

It's prectically all over but the counting at the Daly City office of the department of motor vehicles at 6165 Mission street.

Manager Stan Seaton reported that the local office handled a record 22,000 auto registrations in a one-month period, 3000 more than last year's total.

Like lemmings headed for the sea, a sizeable portion of the motorists waited until the last few days to make their annual pilgrimmage.

Seaton said the staff of seven persons handled 1400 registrations Friday, 900 in four hours Saturday and an all-time high of 1500 Monday.

Fat Penalties

Tuesday about 25 errant motorists who missed the deadline straggled in and paid for their tardiness with 100 per cent plus penalties. Several hundred more late registrations are expected to be handled in coming weeks. A motorist who would have been registered before February 4 at $20 must now pay $34—100 per cent of the $8 registration fee and 50 per cent of the license fee. Formula for delinquent payment is figured by deducting the $8 from the total, then taking half of that figure. The $8 plus 50 per cent of the license fee are added to the original registration cost.

At one time Monday there were 300 people queued up, extending clear up the block and around Crocker avenue. Some drivers waited in line as long as 3½ hours, Seaton said.

Last Year Here

Most of the processing of the registration is done daily, so only about 500 transactions remain to be handled.

This will be the last year that vehicle registrations are collected at the local office and therefore this year's record will stand permanently.

The department of motor vehicles will abandon the present branch and move into Westlake headquarters about May.

The Westlake branch wil offer three times the space, off-street parking and will have an increased staff.

Something For Everyone

The continuing "baby boom," with more than 4,000,000 births in the United States last year, has brought steady demand at the Daly City Public Library and its Westlake-Broadmoor Branch for books on pregnancy and expectant motherhood. Since books can answer many of the questions of the young mother-to-be, both before and after the baby comes, many physicians are advising their patients to read widely on the subject.

A recent manual which covers nearly everything that mothers-to-be need to know is Marion Phillips' "More Than Pregnancy." It covers such aspects as grooming and clothing during pregnancy, what to expect, choice of a physician and hospital, and the layette and nursery furnishings. And older title, Nicholson Eastman's "Expectant Motherhood," also answers questions that harry the pregnant woman.

Facts about natural childbirth, which has received increased attention in recent years, can be obtained in Grantly Read's "Childbirth Without Fear and Natural Childbirth Primer" and Frederick Goodrich's "Natural Childbirth."

Dr. Theodore R. Seidman and Marvin H. Albert have entitled their new volume "Becoming A Mother." Its subtitle: What Every Woman Ought to Know about Fertility, Conception, Pregnancy, and Childbirth is virtually its table of contents.

Those who have reason to believe they will have twins will certainly wish to consult "The Care and Feeding of Twins," by Phyllis Graham. This helpful manual includes such useful information as the cost of having twins and how to name them, as well as a multitude of other things the parents of twins will need to know for the first few years of their children's lives.

Nearly all modern parents are acquainted with Dr. Benjamin Spock, at least by name. His "Feeding Your Baby and Child," written in collaboration with Miriam E. Lowenberg,, is an essential volume for all young parents, as well as those with more experience. "The Baby Manual," by Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, is a practical guide from early pregnancy through the child's second year.

Another household name is that of Dr. Arnold L. Gessell, whose many works covering child development from birth through adolescence are among the most popular in libraries everywhere. Dr. Gessell's "The First Five Years of Life" is perhaps the most widely read of these works.

Doris Warren's "Make It For Baby" and several volumes on choosing names are also very popular, and rightly so.

If you're expecting a baby, visit the Daly City Public Library, 6351 Mission street, or its Westlake-Broadmoor Branch, 34 Park Plaza drive, soon, to obtain any of the books mentioned above or other similar titles. Remember, your public library has something for everyone!

Westlake's Association Vows 'Dues Case' Battle

ANGRY GROUP WILL OPPOSE COURT RULING

An enthusiastic crowd of about 50 Westlake Improvement Association members, determined to preserve the organization's beneficial function to the community, voiced unanimous support Monday night for strengthening their cause.

Ired by the recent court ruling favoring one of six defendants in a dues and assessment suit, association officials and a "sensitive" audience pledged an all-out drive to maintain the group's powers of membership.

J. W. Jackson, association attorney in the dues and assessment suit, touched off a lively response by reminding that that association would appeal the January 12 court decision "if we do not agree with the judge's reasoning."

Judge J. A. Branson has ruled in favor of the Richard Oppermans, formerly of 195 South Mayfair, who were brought to suit in March of 1955 for $28 in back assessments. The association maintains that the original deed and association bylaws make the payment of the levy mandatory.

Judge Branson, upholding the Oppermans in a precedent shattering move, listed no reasons for his decision. Jackson, representing the association, and Allan Sapiro, acting for the defendants, will argue the findings before Judge Branson in the near future.

Branson's ruling would put membership and payment of dues and assessments in the association on a voluntary basis, thus causing a breakdown in the effectiveness of the organization.

The association, with a victory in the suit, could require all families delinquent in payments or who are not members to comply with the ruling.

Jackson interjected a hopeful note, saying "In general, courts favor associations. I'm sure no judge will deny people the right to protect their property."

Opponent Sapiro, however, claims the suit will determine if the association is only a voluntary association, citing that "stipulations in the deed may not be legal." He maintains that the association can't hold homeowners liable if they are not members of the WIA.

Sapiro repeated Monday night that it still must be determined whether stipulations in the original deeds requiring conformance to association by-laws are enforceable. He was given a "cool" reception by the overwhelmingly pre-association audience.

In other key business, the association approved Hartley Appleton's motion that the city planning commission be asked to establish a specific ordinance on building additions, both to the sides and rear of Westlake homes. Under FHA specifications, a minimum of six-feet is necessary between homes, but Appleton pointed out that there is no definite ordinance on on it here at present. "We're just asking to preserve the status quo, in order to avoid sloppy and unauthorized construction," he remarked.

Board members also accompanied the request with Andrew Baffico's motion that the city withhold granting new permits until the matter is settled.

In other business, the directors:

1. Agreed to prepare a financial report on the association for all homeowners as a means of "combatting anti-association residents."

2. Approved the formation of a transportation committee to study needs of community. Director Edward Murphy advised the audience that he is working diligently with city officials on the problem. Next association meeting March 4 will feature discussion on monorail transit system.

3. Moved to send a letter to division of highways on increased frequency of "litterbugs" on Skyline,

RULING WOULD CUT VALUES $1500-$2000

First edition of a news bulletin issued recently by the Westlake Improvement association alleges that Westlake home values would depreciate "from $1500 to $2000" if the association is unable to enforce payments of dues and assessments.

Municipal Judge J. A. Branson ruled last month that Mr. and Mrs. Richard Opperman did not have to pay dues and assessments to the association. Directors of the association immediately issued a statement declaring they would appeal the decision, which could have the effect of making the association a voluntary organization.

The news bulletin, which is scheduled to be sent out monthly, said in a lead story that, "Without an association, a reliable leader in real estate states your home values will depreciate from $1500 to $2000.

The bulletin posed the question, "Do you want Westlake to resemble neighboring communities —no conformities, fences here and there, garages built to the sidewalk, a forest obstructing your view?"

The news letter also charged that, "There are some people who are against the association and are leading you and others to believe that you are not behind us.

"We ask you to please weigh any representations made by anyone against your association, its directors, its employees, in order that you may determine its constructive or destructive results."

McKeon Subdivision Faces 4-Month Delay: Law Suit

Construction of some 2500 homes in Daly City's new 276-acre subdivision, St. Francis Heights, will be delayed "at least four months more," developer George McKeon of the Zita Corporation said today.

Judge Louis B. Dematteis last week took under submission the partition suit involving McKeon and builder Michael Callan. The legal controversy centers around division of certain portions of the old Zanone Estate, of which Callan and his brother, Tom, own a fractional interest. Litigation has already tied up work on the tract for several months.

Under a court restraining order issued last month, McKeon is prohibited from even grading his property until a decision is rendered in the partition suit.

McKeon estimated it would take the judge "at least three months" to arrive at a decision.

This means, McKeon indicated, that it would be four months before earth moving operations could be started again preparatory to building.

McKeon had originally hoped to complete one section of the vast development this year, but it appears now that none of the homes will be finished before 1958.

GETTING a preview last week of his soon-to-be assumed duties here as first business manager of the Jefferson Union High School District is Fred O. Goodell- (center), a veteran of 22 years in school administration. He's shown looking over a map on Westlake unit No. 10 with Superintendent Edward D. Morgan (right) and Ted Tronoff, engineer for Henry Doelger Builder Inc. Goodell and his family will move to Daly City as soon as a replacement is found for his current post as business manager of Coalinga Union High School and College.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

There was a time in the development of the American theater when playwrights leaned heavily toward the social problem play. It was in this period that Elmer Rice wrote his "Street Scene," a realistic drama of tenement life which won for him the Pulitzer prize.

Some 17 years later it was transformed into an opera, music by Kurt Weill and lyrics by Langston Hughes. Now, thanks to the Opera Ring, it is receiving its West Coast premiere in one of this expert little company's productions in-the-round.

Large Cast

Out of a cast of 50 which breathes life into this sometimes comic sometimes sordid tale, Louise Oldt is especially appealing as Anna Maurrant, the erring wife who accepts her dismal frustrated lot with the time-worn belief of the poor that "there will be a brighter day." James Oldt, who possesses a fine, powerful voice, does an excellent job as her husband, Frank.

Stan Throneberry and Kean Mantius play Sam and Rose who share a love which is obviously fated never to flower, and do the best singing of the entire evening when they dream of the day "when we go away together." In marked contrast to all this infidelity and doomed young love is Hildur Mahl and Bill Roblin, who sing and dance their way through their roles of uncomplicated young people of the streets. Things definitely perk up when they come on stage.

We wish we could say that we enjoyed "Street Scene" as much as this same company's production of Weill's "Threepenny Opera," but our conscience won't let us. In spots the lyrics are positively banal, and although we have never heard this work before, there are whole stretches where we knew exactly word for word what was going to be sung.

Standing Room Only

We would say that it was principally the music that disappointed us. It is not too melodious, and too much of it lies in a range which is difficult for a voice with limited training to reach, without becoming shrill if not downright squeaky.

Of course, there is always the other side of the coin—that our appreciation failed to rise to the challenge of Weill's musical line. Our only answer is that you're just going to have to hear it for yourself. Then, if you agree with crowds that have filled 123 South Van Ness to capacity for the first four performances, you may wallop us for our insensitivity.

Westlake To Host Big Wheel Parade

Anything on wheels can be a winner in the Westlake merchant's gigantic wheel parade to be staged in Westlake Shopping Center February 16 at 10 a.m.

According to Barney Etcheverry, president of the merchant's group, any child may enter the contest as long as he or she has something that rolls on wheels. Bicycles, trikes, wagons, skates, scooters or anything of similar nature, may be entered in the contest for a host of prizes headed by a brand new bicycle.

Etcheverry stated there is nothing to write, pay or do, except be in the parking lot near J. C. Penney store Saturday morning, February 16, by 10 a.m. The children in the event will parade through the shopping center and will be judged by a group of merchants for originality, appearance and amount of work involved in the entry.

Over $100 in prizes have been donated for the affair by Henry Doelger, Builder, Inc., and will be awarded the winners at the conclusion of the parade, it was announced.

Citizens School Study Group Attacks Problem Of Teacher 'Turnover'

The newly-formed citizens group working for betterment of the Jefferson Elementary School district will hold their third meeting next Monday at Westlake school multi-purpose room, starting at 8 p.m.

The organization, temporily headed by Thomas Noonan, has undertaken the project of determining reason for the alleged "rapid turnover" of teachers in the school district.

McKeon Zoning Up For Hearing Monday

Public hearing on zoning of Zita Corporation's St. Francis subdivision and adjoining properties planned for commercial development will be held Monday night before the Daly City council.

Zoning application of George McKeon of the Zita Corporation has already won approval of the planning commission, with exception of one parcel off Edgemar road proposed for commercial status. Action on this was withheld pending notification by the Jefferson Elementary School district of their school site needs in that area.

Monday's hearing starts at 8 p.m.

PL 5-0679

This weekend promises to be a big one for the youngsters of the area. Feb. 9, Saturday, is the day when "Aladdin" will be playing at the Jeff Hi auditorium at 1 and 3 p.m., and small ones can be entranced with the color, music and excitement of the play for only a small sunm. Presented by the S. F. Players Guild, "Aladdin" is sponsored by the local PTA coordinating committee, and is a wonderful opportunity for children to have a "live" stage experience. There is nothing quite like the magic of that. Tickets at the desk —Come and buy some!

Sunday is, of course, the day of The Parade! Need we say more? Excitement has been mounting about it almost daily for the past several weeks, and people working on it heve reached the wrung-out stage. Being one of those peopie who can't hear a drum without stamping a foot, we're just as excited as anyone else. Here's a good chance to invite your relatives and friends over to watch our children do themselves proud. They'd better come early, though, as the streets will have to be blocked off during parade time. Starting time is 1:30 p.m. Invite everyone for lunch or something!

Around and About

The welcome mat is out for a new Larchmont family, the Cassadays. Newly arrived from Visalia, they are delighted with their new home and its surroundings, and the Village is glad to welcome them. Roy is with Richfield Oil, and Beverly is busy getting settled right now. Twelve-year-old son Kit is in Colma school, and Kathleen is a six-year-old first grader. The Cassadays moved into Dean and Marge Reutter's home, the Reutters having moved to Hayward. Sorry to see them leave, for sure. They will be missed.

Another departure is that of Aleen and Ray Johnson from Louvaine drive. Ray was transferred to New York, so the Johnsons will be living in Mineola, on Long Island. Aleen made a fleeting trip back to house hunt, then Ray made a fleeting trip back here a few weeks later to pick up his family and carry them off. Neighbors Jan Rizzo, Bea Gantert, Gracia Krueger and Lorraine Bjorkquist treated Aleen to a farewell lunch at the Brentwood Lodge. They, and everyone else, will miss the Johnsons.

Hear tell that Midway's John Crofton was honored as Past Grand Knight at the Knights of Columbus ball last Saturday. About half the Villagers attended, we figure! . . . Sorry that our report of measles in the Stettler family was incorrect. We should have said chicken pox! . . . Measles did strike at all three small Ortons on Sweetwood, though, and paid a visit also to Perky Gillespie on Gilman . . . Dan and Jean Peck, who have been down Stanford way all year, came up last Sunday to see all their many friends at the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, and to say goodbye to the Glasses, who are leaving for Carmichael on March 1.

Our sympathy to Dorothy Orlich, whose brother-in-lay died recently after a long illness, and to Larry Green, who lost a favorite uncle. Ex-Villager Eunice Irvine, now living at Pollock Pines, near Lake Tahoe, lost her mother early in the year after an illness and operation. Eunice, who with husband George know on duty in the friends and groups they knew here, will be long and well remembered by everyone. As a matter of fact, Eunice needs help from Villagers right now in replacing 16 units of blood needed for transfusions for her mother. Anyone who would like to be a donor can call Ken Gillespie at PL 5-5123, and he will give the information necessary to see that the blood bank credits the units given to the proper name and location.

We are glad to report that Louvaine's Tommy Cheskey is home and feeling fine after a rather serious illness which sent him to the hospital. He has to take it slowly for a while, but is his old self again, for which Sam and Cleo are more than glad.

Parties Are Popular

First copper party we've written about for a long while was given by Mary Jane O'Brien of Thornhill, with Yolanda Bram, Barbara McCarthy, Ann Duffy and Marge Musto as guests. Unfortunately, many of Mary Jane's long guest list could not come because of illness, a factor which is plaguing all too many people hereabouts lately. Whed will id be Sprig?

And up on Village lane, Jan Macklin celebrated that all-important sixth birthday, with a happy afternoon spent with guests Joey Thiemann, Lynn McCarthy, Linda Simister, Ann Liska, Margie Bartelmez, Stephanie dal Porto, Debbie Bocci, Karen Peterson, Chrissie Leas, Ruth Graham and Elaine Chiosso. This brood kept mother Berta busy with the cake knife an dice cream serving spoon, naturally!

Getting into the swing of things, the executive board of the James from Benjamin Franklin and Garden Village Schools a dinner in their honor, instead of the annual luncheon. It was an Italian evening, with a striped awning over the buffet table, and spaghetti, tossed salad and garlic bread on the menu, plus dessert and coffee. There were candles (in bottles) and dinner music and a program, and everyone had a fine time. You should see Elvis St. Clair in action!

Louvaine's Judy Krueger had a surprise party given for her the other evening for her 13th birthday. Hostess and surprise-planner-in-chief was Ann Schweitzer, who gathered all the guests at her Sweetwood home for , dancing games, refreshments and talk, and the piece de resistance was the ice cream Gracia Krueger gave. It was a fruit basket, with separate pieces of ice cream fruit, and was the conversational topic of the evening. Guests enjoying the affair were John Sorenson, Kent Sorenson, Ron Monte, Clare Root, Jack Kyle, Sharon Rasmussen, Joyce Dare, Mary Fisher, Art Headval, John Margaroni and Geraldine Salzman.

Lucky Winners

Ray and Marie Edmison are living in a whirl these days. They are lucky winners of the Tangletown contest in one of the city papers, and now have $5000 and a Ford Ranch wagon to call their own (well, not quite $5000 when Uncle Sam gets through!). Naturally, excitement in their Sweetwood neighborhood is running high and it will take a while for things to simmer down a bit. Incidentally, the beige ranch wagon was a bonus prize for subscriptions.

Other Villagers who came in winners of one size prize or another were the Owen McCarthys on MacArthur, Sam Eismans on Midway, Arthur Eckmans on Larchmont, Arthur Frischs on 89th street, Carl Comleys on Maddux, Leslie Moons on Garden lane, and K. I. Chrisholms on Village lane. Hope we didn't miss anybody; if we did, let us know so we can include you in next week.

This seems to be party week with a vengeance. Addie Mattison and Gert Green co-hostessed a Jeff Hi PTA card party at Addie's Sweetwood home the other evening, with bridge, whist and canasta the order of the tables. Players included Clarence Lair, Gracia Krueger, Betty Nagy, Erna Schmidt, Peg Derham, Toni Michaels, Vera Watts, Mrs. Cora Smith, Jane Bovavito and Diane Shelton.

Being a young man of ten requires a celebration, Jim Tobin felt, so he invited friends Billy Eagleton, John Arnott and Jim Spaulding over to his Nimitz drive home for a special birthday lunch, after which the four went to the show just to top off a special day.

Being a young lad of five also means a great deal, as Shelley Alba found out. Not only did daddy take her out to dinner all by herself on her real birthday, but she had a wonderful party on a different day, with a doll cake. Guests who enjoyed this cake at the Alba home on 87th street were Linda Tolomei, Cindy Muncey, Stephanie and Sharon Tollini, Nancy Swoverland, Patty and Terri Alba, Loretta and Timmy O'Brien, Sally LaDassor, Alison and Pamela Wooten, Joy Lynn, Pamela and Donna McCarthy, Janet Brugge, and Cathy Sanders.

Another happy lady of five was Midway's Roxanne Royes, who had a family party and a Saturday party both, with a pinata at the latter. The pinata-breaking was highly enjoyed by guests Anna-Marie Gigli, Patty Ann McKenna, Carla Larsen, and Marilyn and Karen Mattson.

Shower Time

Stewart avenue buzzed with fun the night Olga Rizzo gave a baby shower for Inez Dryden, with gifts, talk, refreshments, talk, fun and conversation filling a happy evening. In on all this were Jan Rizzo, Bea Gantert, Bernice Kerger, Rosa Dexter, Mary Lucey, Irene Gonzales, Joanne Cross, Ruth Baker, Tita Kostevich, Iris Latreille, Mrs. Gertrude Frazer, Stella Frazer, Ruth Salet, Helen Mahoney, Mary Contreras, Emma Aiello, Mrs. Jenny Aiello, Mrs. Mamie Phelps, Hermi Randall, Ruth Brown and Peggy Northrup.

Shower to end all showers was given for Shirley Carte, who used to work at King's, by Sarah Schuster, with help from Ann Rowe. Everyone wanted to help, so Jo Morrow made the favors, Aggie Allen made beautiful fancy sandwiches, Esther Clayton made a tossed tuna-and-Chinese-noodle salad which had everyone asking for the recipe, and Thelma Eddy took charge of the napkin-decorating department. It's a good thing Sarah's house on 87th and Sullivan was a big one—the guest list was tremendous! Also there for the party—which is what it was, really—were Opal Richards, Gracia Krueger, Elsie Murrish, Alma Williams, Betty Hansen and Myrtle Barker (all the way from Menlo Park), Lorraine Trather, Genevieve Smoth, Jo Fleischauer, Joyce Moore, Judy Winikoff, Pearl Salmon, Nell Heskett, May Cleveland, Thelma Close, Marie Crawley, Betty Hall, Marie Anderson, Madge Steely, Nadine Victorina, Phyllis Hassman, and Harriet Blake. Dick Schuster met the guest of honor at the door and presented her with a "This Is Your Life" baby book, and the Schuster dog, Skipper, also gave a gift—three diapers! The house looked beautiful, we heard—all pink and white carnations and Japanese iris. Only thing we didn't hear is whose gift was the seventh to be opened!

We thorougly enjoyed the Indian Guides father-and-son banquet the other night. We were there because, like Maude Beck, Marianne Freiberg, Lillian Williams, Eleanor Raymond and many others squaws, we waited on tables. In spite of a hassle with the coffeemakers, everything went fine, with good food, colorful costumes and an excellent program. Chief Eaglewing and his son, Red Turtle, gave traditional Indian dances and told Indian stories, as well as bringing a display of many real Indian objects, and the Longhouse induction team performed the ceremony welcoming new fathers and sons into the group. It was quite colorful and impressive, and the gym of the Stonestown YMCA was packed with about 300 people having a good time.

A reminder before we leave you for this week: there are boxes at the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church for any clothing or shoes you may have to give to Iron Curtain refugees, who will be more than glad to have it. Things may be left at the church next Sunday, or you may call Mrs. Fred Moore at PL 5-8541 to make other arrangements if this is not convenient.

Launch Freedom Balloons At Seals Stadium Feb. 10

Colma-Vista Grande Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles will launch plastic Crusade for Freedom balloons on Sunday, February 10, to symbolize support of the cause of Communist-oppressed peoples, and register support for Radio Free Europe, it was announced today by Charles Bartha, Aerie President.

The event will climax observance of the 59th anniversary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles founded Feb. 6, 1898 at Seattle, Wash.

The program, which will feature the ascension of hundreds of helium-inflated balloons, dramatizing the Crusade for Freedom campaign for Radio Free Europe and Free Europe Press will be held at 2 p.m. at Seals Stadium, 16th and Bryant streets, San Francisco.

Plans for the ceremony, which will include talks on freedom, are being made by a special Freedom committee of the Aerie, with Dell Fehl, as chairman.

The balloons will be the same as those sent over communist-dominated countries by the Crusade for Freedom, and will carry messages, stressing the significance of the freedom campaign, and urging support of the radio project to strengthen the will of the populations in communist-gripped nations to resist their oppressors. The finders will be asked to inform the local Aerie of their discovery.

The launching here will be one of hundreds carried on in other Eagle communities throughout the American Heritage Foundation, sponsors of the Crusade for Freedom. The fraternal program is being directed by the national Freedom Committee of the Eagles, headed by Ray Smith, Portland, Oregon.

"We are inviting all citizens of Daly City to join in this important event," said Worthy President Bartha. "In this period when the forces wanting freedom in Eastern Europe are making themselves felt more strongly than ever, it is important that Radio Free Europe receive the support it needs to continue broadcasting its message of hope and of inspiration."

The ceremony will mark the fourth successive year that the Eagles have participated as sponsors of the balloon launchings. The balloons are capable of floating six or seven hundred miles. Last year, many of the balloons were reported found in various parts of the country.

A motor car carivan will leave the Eagles Hal, 3346 San Jose, Daly City at exactly 1 p.m., escorted by police units. Reserved parking facilities are planned for our Daly City group.

Marching units, drill teams, bands, etc., will fulfill the ceremony.

Lutherans Await 'Preaching Mission' Week of Feb. 17

Hope Lutheran church on Old San Pedro Road in Daly City will be busy the week of February 17 when a series of five public meetings will be held. A special committee, headed by Dale Williams, is planning a "preaching mission" geared to a program which will seek to enlist and train every member of the church as an effective salesman for the gospel of Christ.

Aim of the services, according to the Rev. Louis C. Marting, pastor, is to acquain those in our area who are "unchurched" with basic Christian teachings.

Sunday afternoon some 25 members of Hope church will call at the home of fellow-members to enlist workers for this week-long Evangelism mission and ask every member to attend the five meetings, try to bring a neighbor, and to pray for the venture.

A guest missioner, the Rev. Charles Mueller from Beacon Lutheran church, Seattle, Wash., will deliver the five lecture sermons on the theme, "Life's Greatest Questions."

"There is much debate over whether the current upswing in religious interest is phony or real," commented the Rev. Marting. "We look upon it as the greatest opportunity we have in this century to direct people to the Biblical message which centers in the divine Christ. Trust in Jesus Christ as the Savior from sin is the way from vague religious interest to genuine Christian conviction," he continued.

Hope Lutheran is joined with 68 other congregations of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod in the Bay Area in this Evangelism Mission. Similar area-wide drives are being held throughout the United States, directed by the denomination's department of evangelism.

State Announces Urgency Law On Vehicle Transfer

State Motor Vehicles Director Paul Mason today cautioned that a new urgency law signed Monday by Governor Goodwin J. Knight makes it illegal for a registered owner to transfer his interest in any vehicle which has been involved in a reportable accident until certain financial responsibility requirements are met.

A reportable accident is one in which death or injury has been caused, or where there is property damage of $100 or more, and must be reported to the Department of Motor Vehicles in Sacramento.

The new act does not affect the right of a legal owner to take possession of the involved vehicle and to transfer registration, Mason said.

Prior to passage of the emergency amendment, a registered owner could sell the vehicle any time within 76 days after the accident report was filed. Under the new amendments, it will be a misdemeanor for him to do so unless he is insured, deposits security or shows other proof of financial responsibility.

Under the new measure, the prohibition against transfer until financial responsibility provisions are satisfied applies immediately to the registered owner alone following a reportable accident.

DC Sailor Receives Submariner's Emblem

Fireman Apprentice Robert A. Pool, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Pool, 744 Bellevue avenue, recently was presented his Dolphin, emblem of a qualified submariner, in ceremonies at Pearl Harbor.

The insignia derives its name from the two dolphins and the surfaced submarine which compose it. Equivalent to an aviator's wings, the Dolphin is awarded upon completion of a comprehensive on-the-job training course involving the mechanical and electrical operation of a submarine.

Before entering the service last August, young Pool attended College of San Mateo.

Miss Betty L. Green Weds James G. Elliot

The Rev. Clarke Edwards recently solemnized the candlelight marriage ceremony of Miss Betty Lou Green and James G. Elliot at City College Lakeside Presbyterian Church.

Her maid of honor, Charlene Taylor, wore a floor length princess style turquoise dress, while bridesmaids Lynette Jensen and Patricia Cookson wore identical coral gowns.

Guests were ushered in by David Shipley and Gary Brown. Best man was Jack Elliot, brother of the groom.

Vocal selections by Miss Sarah Ann Hurst were "True Love" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mrs. Perrian on the organ.

The church was decorated with white gladioli and candles accented by the blue cross at the altar.

The bride, a Jefferson graduate, works for the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Elliot of Seattle, Weshington.

Two 'Mustachioed' Bandits Get $250 In Tavern Stickup

Two dapper young bandits, disguised by "penciled on" mustaches, walked into Gino's Tavern, 7123 Mission street, shortly after midnight Thursday and escaped with a cash haul of $250.

Bar owner Gino Baldacci said the pair entered the establishment about 12:35 a.m. and quickly got down to business.

While one robber pointed a .22 revolver at Baldacci, bartender Edward Perrino and a customer, the other opened a large white envelope and demanded it be filled with money from the cash register.

The gun wielder was described as about 6-1, 170 pounds, aged 19 to 22, and slender. He was wearing a brown and white checked overcoat and a felt hat.

His companion was described as about 5-6, 150 pounds, 18 or 19, wearing horn-rimmed glasses, a tan suit and leather gloves.

Markovich Protests Opening Police Job To Non-Residents

Opening the assistant chief of police job to applicants from outside Daly City was protested by a Chamber of Commerce official at Wednesday night's council study session.

He declared that most of the Daly City policemen were born and raised here and were entitled to a "chance for advancement."

BOOK STEAMFITTER IN WESTLAKE FOR 'WRONG WAY' ACT

Driving in a "weaving manner" on the wrong side of Lake Merced boulevard brought the arrest of a 46-year-old San Francisco steamfitter in Westlake Wednesday night on suspicion of drunk driving.

Police observed a car driven by Perry E. Underwood going south on the wrong side of the street, finally coming to a halt just north of Alemany. Another driver jumped into Underwood's vehicle and parked it at the curb to eliminate the traffic hazard.

After taking a three-fourths empty pint of whiskey as evidence, officers took the steamfitter to Junipero Serra hospital for a sobriety test, which the latter flunked.

Underwood was released on $500 bail. He's scheduled for municipal court on February 19.

City To Undertake New Salary Study

Daly City will bring its job survey up to date in an effort to work with the North San Mateo County Council of Cities in its efforts toward uniform salaries.

Hupf recommended that the state be hired to bring Daly City's job classifications and pay up to date.

He said he will make a motion to that effect at Monday night's meeting.

BAY RAPID TRANSIT DISTRICT SEEN AS POWERFUL ENTITY

The Bay Area Rapid Transit district bill now before the state legislature would create somewhat of an all-powerful taxing entity that would offer individual cities little chance of representation.

This was essence of an analysis of the bill given the council Wednesday night by city manager Howard Stites.

Stites said Daly City would have virtually no voice in determining the district's program. He termed the proposed district's taxing powers "great" and revealed that it would have the ability to assess property for tax purposes and levy a one per cent sales tax. District bonds might be passed by a simple majority rather than two-thirds majority, he continued.

Only three of the district's 19 directors would be from San Mateo county, he said.

The district's activities would not be subject to review by the public utilities commission and would have power of eminent domain, he added.

The council is expected to take a stand on the bill next week.

San Francisco is the first city in the nation to have a civic opera house and to vote municipal support of its symphony orchestra.

'LIBRARY FRIENDS' NET 1800 BOOKS IN RECENT DRIVE

Recent community-wide book drive by Friends Of The Library brought more than 1800 volumes to the Daly City Library shelves, the group learned Thursday night at its regular meeting.

Miss Patricia Clarke, city librarian, termed the books "of high quality and in exceptionally good condition." Eighty per cent of them were fiction, she reported.

Councilman Sanford Vickers appeared at the meeting and informed the group that the city is investigating to determine the outlay for the Westlake Branch Library, to be located on Southgate near Crestwood.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Marion Garthwaite, children's librarian of the San Mateo County Free Library. She emphasized the importance of books in the lives of growing children, and spoke of parents' responsibilities in seeing that these books are well chosen.

In other business Thursday, the group voted on amendments to its constitution and by-laws.

Thunderbirds Capture Westlake Cage Crown

Other second round standings: Eagles, 4-2; Jaguars, 2-4, and Sharpshooters, 0-6.

Starters for the Thunderbirds were Captain Larry Siegel, Jimmy Fotenos, Marc Mallinger, David Flowers and Richard Perazzo.

The champs were defeated by Colma Primary's Boas last Thursday, 20-14. Dan Hermosillo led the winners with 12 points. Siegel, Mallinger and Perrazo each got 4.

Westlake's netball team, the Sharpshooterettes, lost to the Colma girls, 35-18.

LAKE MERCED SCOUTS TO ATTEND EAGLE RECOGNITION DINNER FETE

A large group of Eagle Scouts from Lake Merced District attenended the third annual Eagle Recongintion Dinner Wednesday day in the Peacock Court of the Hotel Mark Hopkins.

Mark R. Sullivan, president of Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company, was chairman of the event, which opened Boy Scout Week (February 6-12), the 47th Anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America.

It was the largest number of Eagle Scouts ever to attend the dinner in San Francisco, representing almost a 50 percent gain in boys who achieved during 1956 the Eagle badge, highest in Scouting given for an outstanding record in Scouting, school, church and community, for earning 21 merit badges, and demonstrating leadership and citizenship.

The purpose of the banquet was to honor the Eagle Scouts for their achievement by having prominent local citizens who are engaged in the particular fields of interest the Scouts are, sponsor them at this affair.

The dinner program featured a well-known guest speaker, an Eagle Scout speaker and a rededication to the Scout Oath ceremony by the boys.

The Scouts from the Lake Merced District attending the Eagle Recognition Dinner were: Ramon Calderaro, 1640 Cayuga avenue, William Anthony Lytle, 1650-22nd avenue, Donald A. O'Classen, 83 Regent street, all of Post 50; David Elvin, 265 Pacheco street, Peter Kleinsorge, 550 Darien way, Chris McKenzie, 40 Linares avenue, Frederick Vogel, 1964 - 8th avenue, all of Troop 88; Carl Edgerton Riesen, 295 Stonecrest drive, Peter Mathews, 60 San Andreas way, both of Troop 98; Robert John Dyer, 2418 - 16th avenue, of Post 143; Robert Anderson, 768 Junipero Serra boulevard, David Theodore Baumann, 1590 Portola drive, Gerald Anthony Brousseau, 504 Hill street, Robert Wiley Bryant, 244 Garces drive, Kenneth Jenkins, 40 San Rafael way, William Gassoway, 956 Junipero Serra boulevard, William Watson, 990 Randolph street, Peter Wronsky, 332 Santa Ana avenue, all of Troop 340.

Youth, 19, 'Shot' As 'Playful' Pal's Bullet Ricochets

A 19-year-old San Francisco youth was accidentally shot Sunday night by a "playful" buddy during a target shooting spree on the beach near Mussel Rock.

Rushed to the hospital was Tom Hurst, who told officers that his friend, Richard DiPiero, 18, aimed his .22 rifle at the sand in front of him to cause the mishap. The bullet ricocheted, bounced 10 feet and lodged in Hurst's left buttock, penetrating to the lower pelvic region.

Richard DiPiero, who accidentally shot his friend Sunday, was sentenced to 90 days in county jail Tuesday in municipal court after pleading guilty to illegal use of a firearm. Sixty days of his term will be suspended if he pays a fine of $150, Judge Thomas L. Bocci ordered.

The victim was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital, then transferred to St. Francis hospital, where attendants said his condition was "fair."

Di Piero, a shipping clerk, was booked by Daly City police for illegally shooting within the city limits and for using a weapon in a threatening manner.

Another charge of assault with a deadly weapon was dismissed after two other companions verified the account of the shooting. Di Piero, officers said, is a parolee of the California Youth Authority.

Honor Five Local Coeds At CSM Fete

Five residents of the Daly City area were among those honored by the Associated Women Students and the Womens Recreation Association of College of San Mateo Wednesday evening at the Coyote Point campus.

A traditional social event, the dinner was the occasion for honoring retiring officers and installing new officers.

Jan Watson, 34 Westdale avenue, was installed as president of the Womens Recreation Association; Jan Toole, 245 Washington street, Colma, and Barbara Delucchi, 241 Oliver street, were awarded pins for service as officers of the Womens Recreation Association.

Barbara Brenzel, 434 Mariposa, Brisbane, and Donna Fisher, 751 Thornhill drive, Colma, were awarded trophies as members of the high bowling team.

SCARED, SOAKED BOYS, 10, QUIT 'LOS ANGELES' TREK

Two soaked and scared 10-year-old boys were returned to their homes by Broadmoor police early Saturday morning after a six-hour bicycle odyssey, destination Los Angeles, which found them venturing as far as San Mateo.

The youngsters, James Swoverland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Swoverland, 527 87th street, Broadmoor, and Robert Tuttle Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Tuttle, 8 Montrose, Daly City, were scheduled to return home at 6 p.m. Friday.

At 11:30 p.m. they were still missing. The parents became anxious and Broadmoor police organized a 20-man house-to-house search of the area, to no avail.

At 12:30 a.m. San Bruno police reported they had found the boys. They had traveled as far as San Mateo and turned heels for home.

Award U. S. Bonds In Essay Contest For High Students

More than $1,000 in U. S. Savings Bonds will be awarded this semester to California high school students who write winning essays on the subject of "The California Merit System In Our Democracy," today announced Elmer Hanrahan, public relations director for the sponsoring California State Employees' Association.

Aimed at stimulating interest in the state's model merit civil service system, the contest is being conducted on both junior and senior high school levels with identical awards for winners in each group, Hanrahan explained.

"Bonds with a maturity value of $25 will be awarded for the 38 best essays in 19 regions of the state," he said. "The two best of these compositions will each be worth $100 bonds, and the second best will win $50 bonds for their authors."

Students in both public and parochial schools are eligible to compete. Individuals interested should consult their English teachers.

Crockerites Report

FIFTH GRADE
MRS. McKEOWN
By Jennifer Jacobsen

Our class is making a mural about "Moving Westward." We have been working in committees. Some committees are doing water travel, others land travel by covered wagon and stage coach, and still others are doing longhorn cattle drives, gold rushes, pony express, and the first coast-to-coast railroad.

This month we are having our school painted. The color is a light gray with white and lime trim to match the multi-purpose building. We have a new cyclone fence around our school now, and gardeners have just finished planting young ice plants on the hillside to keep the earth from washing down.

In December our class went to the San Francisco Museum. We visited the Science Building, Aquarium, Planetarium, De-Young Museum, and the Japanese Tea Gardens. The things we enjoyed most were the stuffed animals in the African Hall and the alligators in the Aquarium. ..

FOURTH GRADE
MRS. HAWKINS

Reed Anderson and Linda Lake brought their microscopes to class. Every day we look at a different slide of an animal or a leaf. Today we saw the vein of a Pagoda tree. We are learning more and more about the microscopic world. We have all learned how to look through a microscope.

We are excited about our coming trip to Chinatown in San Francisco. We are going to see a film all about it first so that we will know just what to look for when we visit Chinatown.

FOURTH GRADE
MRS. GARDNER

Our class has had two very exciting experiences and is looking forward to a third one.

First, we put together a book of "make-believe' stories called "Great Tales." These stories were written by our students. We enjoyed them so much that we decided to share these stories with the other fourth grade classes at school. We also gave a few copies of our book to the fifth and sixth grade classes. The students who wrote the stories are: John Bell, Janie Fox, Janis Gil, Pamela Gray, Stanley Kinka, Elsie Layton, Linda McKean, Herbert Meneken, Vivian Santiago and Steve Wininger.

Our second exciting experience was that we saw a film called "China By The Golden Gate," which we enjoyed very much, especially because it prepared us for our field trip to San Francisco's Chinatown. We went on Monday. Our class visited a Chinese newspaper, the Chinese telephone exchange, a Chinese temple and some of the stores. We also had lunch at a Chinese restaurant. This trip fits in with our social studies unit on California.

FIFTH GRADE
MRS. LEIBE

Our class has been listening to the story of "Aladdin" so that when we go to see the play this Saturday, in the Jefferson High School auditorium, we will be aware of the plot and can enjoy it more.

The American Legion Auxillary is again sponsoring an essay contest. This year the topic is, "The Statue of Liberty." Our class has done a great deal of research, individually and in groups, to find out as much as we can on this subject. We have even written to the Statue of Liberty Committee in New York for information. We hope to get enough information to make our essays interesting.

In our social studies book we read about George Washington, "Father Of Our Country." We drew pictures of the various stages of his life, from boyhood to his return to Mt. Vernon, after his term as president.

OLD JOSS HOUSE

The Old Joss House, located in Weaverville, California, was once a place of worship for several thousand Chinese who worked the nearby gold mines, says the California State Automobile Association.

JEFF OTTINGS

By Alda Caggiano

In a record-breaking vote recently students chose Lorrie Johnson as their student body president for the spring term. The margin of votes cast for Johanna Hedvall and Bill Strassburger was so close that it will necessitate a run-off election for the office of vice-president. Bunny Barone was elected secretary over Florence Verducci, and Gerry Bertetta and Sandy Enloe will be competitors in the run-offs for the office of treasurer. Dan Miceli, running unopposed, was re-elected to the office of head sergeant-at-arms. The present judge, Phil Delucchi, and his opponent, Angela Sunderland, will compete for this position in the run-off election.

Rah-Rah Gals

Delia Patron, winning over two other candidates, will lead the school in spirit as head yell leader, assisted by Nancy Young, Vicki Tomasi, and Mary Stevens. The ofur pep girls elected were Darlene Carney, Sherry Ellice, Vivian Rogers and Linda Wienholz.

Mr. Brown's English VII classes have been so successful and popular with students that he is planning a special literature course next semester for interested seniors who can fit this added subject into their programs.

Recently the Spirited Speakers (Public Speaking Club) held a spaghetti feed at Nancy Young's house. After having a delightful dinner, they all attended the Fox Theater and saw the production of "Anastasia." Those present were Barbara Kent, Jane Hillyer, Gloria Lopez, Bobbie Pushman, Irene Underhill and Mary Crane.

Mr. Shakespeare

"The Taming of the Shrew" has been chosen for the spring play to be given in the latter part of March or in early April. Tryouts were held last week, and the list of the cast is expected to be posted shortly. Petruchio, Vencentius, Baptista, and Kathrina are among the main characters in this well-known Shakespearean comedy.

As of the new semester, rooms 38 and 39, appropriately nicknamed "Siberia" because of their lack of sufficient heat and distance from the main buildings, will no longer be used as regular classrooms.

The Totem Pole, Jeff's weekly newspaper, recently elected its staff officials for the new term. They are: co-editors, Sandy Enloe and Alda Caggiano; feature editor, Pat Johnson; exchange editor, Gordon Tydingco; and circulation manager, Gary Romriell.

Modern Strut

Sandy Gonzales and Phyllis Prater added to the entertainment strutting to a modern dance from the fabulous production, "New Faces of 1967." A touch of variety was added when Jill Doughery and Joyce Callaghan did a pantomime to the record "How Could You Believe Me When I Said I Loved You." Featured with the Circus was Barbara Dominguez, doing acrobatics to "The Man with the Golden Arm. Also on the agenda were Sandy Karn, Sylvia and Joan Crawford, Edyth Guidry, Judy McCullough and LuAnn Carpenter.

The final act, a skit of the rehearsal of a Broadway play, consisting of Tom Battaglia, Dave Calloway, Jim D'Amour, Reed Grandy and Dan Miceli, proved to be the highlight of the assembly.

A speaker from the California Research Corporation was present in the fourth and fifth period chemistry classes last week for the purpose of interesting students on the subject, "Opportunities in Science and Engineering." In addition, physics students were also excused from regular classes to attend this informative lecture.

Name Thespians

After countless hours of nerve-racking anticipation, the cast of the spring play, "The Taming of the Shrew," has been named. An innovation will be put into effect whereby, in a few cases, members of the cast have been doubled and each person will perform one night. The players will be: Baptista, Richard Hall; Petrucio, Mike Calvello; Lucentio, Roger Filipelli; Hortensio, Ray Navarra; Tranio, Ron McLain; Gremio, Harold Sharp; Katherina, Sandy Karn and Jessie Edminster; Bianca, Florence Verducci and Karen Gerdes; the Widow, Emily Thomas and Michele Bruseth; Susannah, Susan Knedel; Sly, Joe Gostanin; Lord, Jim D'Amour; Hostess, Sandra Campbell and Lola Patron; Huntsmen, Nancy Golladay; Servant, Mary Ellis; Biondello, Dick Lair; Curtis, Linda Sarienen; Bridget, Johanne Ekert; Milliner, Gail Duncan; and the Pages, Wilma Tholen, Nancy Golden, Marian Grado and Sandy Briggs.

Queen Cuties

Four Jefferson Coast-side students are among the ten candidates who have thrown their hats into the ring for the "Miss Pacifica" contest. Entered are Marie Hensley and Joyce Kaufman, representing Pacific Manor; Joanne Finch, from Linda Mar, and Linda Huffman, entrant from Sharp Park. Winner of the contset will get a $150 wardrobe, the chance to compete for "Miss San Mateo County," and possibly the opportunity to seek the "Miss Californie" title.

After what seemed to be an endless discussion, members of the Executive Board finally voted to have their traditional dinner at the El Rancho. This popular restaurant is located in Millbrae, and in addition to dinner, presents a 20-minute show in the form of an aquacade. This site was one of four considered by the Execs, the other three possibilities being the New Tivoli, the Lanai and the Hickory Pit.

Sailor Gene Premici Ends 'Boot' Training

Gene L. Premici, whose parents live at 57 Hillcrest drive, graduated from recruit training Saturday at the San Diego Naval Center.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

Jeff Clobbers Knights, 53-18; Only 'Slim' Chance For Crown

STEADY senior forward Bob Comstock kept Jeff in the running for North PAL title Tuesday as he bagged 13 points in the 53-18 win over Hillsdale. Next league game for the locals is Monday against Carlmont down south.

Still nursing title hopes, Jefferson's varsity cagers snapped a disastrous three - game losing streak Tuesday as they bombarded hapless Hillsdale, 53-18.

The romp win gave the Tribe a 6-3 record and a mathematical chance for the championship—providing front-running Burlingame (8-1) hits the skids in three remaining games.

Blingum Slate

The Panthers slipped by Carlmont (5-3) Tuesday in a thriller, 38-37. Blingum meets improved Capuchino this Friday, then wraps up the campaign against two weak sisters, Hillsdale and San Mateo. It's unlikely, but possible, that the Panthers will surrender their lead.

Mike Orlich's locals, derailed by succesive losses to South City, San Mateo and Burlingame, face Carlmont in Scotland next Monday. Loser of that one is just about out of the runing. The Indians then entertain Capuchino and South City in their final outings.

Taking a bye this Friday night, Jeff's varsity will meet San Francisco State's jayvees in Gator gym at 6 o'clock. Second game pits the Gators and Humboldt State.

Lopsided Tilt

Orlich took it easy on basement-dwelling Hillsdale Tuesday. He yanked his regulars at the end of the third quarter, sweeping the bench from end to end.

Guard Gary Ryan, red hot of late, paced the waltz with 16 points. He took seven shots in the first half, hitting six times. Forward Bob Comstock returned to form with 13.

Mr. Reliable, Larry Pottinger, contributed 12 to keep him close on the heels of San Mateo's Dave Langrock in the scoring race.

Halftime count favoring the Tribe was 28-12. They hiked it to 47-14 as the fourth period opened.

Thirties Skid

Steve Mezzera's 30's fell below the .500 mark by losing the lightweight tilt, 35-24. Ino Patron led his mates with 11 points, but Wayne Lewis lost ground in his bid for the North PAL pointmaking crown. He was held to a season low of 3 markers.

Hillsdale's juniors opened up in the third quarter to break a 22-all halftime tally.

Burlingame led throughout Friday as they stopped the Jeff varsity in their crucial battle here, 33-29. Big Chris Agorastros, 6-7 Panther center, proved the difference, controlling the boards and scoring 13 points.

The invaders were on top at intermission, 18-13, and maintained control to the final gun.

Larry Tops

Pottinger again was Jeff's best performer with 9 points. Guard Barry Haanen accounted for 7.

Blingum's pace-setting 30's steamrolled in the lid-lifter, 52-36. Doug Johnson's 18 spearheaded the league-leaders, who have an 8-1 record.

Patron and Ernie Howren shared honors for Jeff with 9 points apiece. All of Howren's were free throws.

S. F. MIDDLEWEIGHTS TOP THURSDAY FIGHTS

Cleo Rand, no newcomer to local boxing fans, and Ralph Johnson will provide the feature attraction next Thursday when the OLPH Men's club presents an amateur boxing program at the Daly City community center.

The two San Francisco boys both weigh in at 160 pounds. Rand is remembered for his slam-bang performance at the November 29 boxing show.

In a 180-pound battle, Ron Herman of Sacramento and John Newsom of San Francisco are paired.

Oakland's Lee Stanley and San Mateo's Harry Sadler will thump away in the welterweight division.

Also scheduled for action is Willie Woods, who will meet an opponent yet to be named.

Woods had the crowd standing at the last OLPH presentation in one of the feature events.

Several other bouts, yet to be arranged, will also be on the card.

Men's club committeemen Walt Gillies, chairman, Bud Lycett, Dick Liberty and Nate Pearlman said they anticipated a "capacity crowd."

Bouts start at 8 p.m. at the center, Mission and Alp streets. All fights are under jurisdiction of the state athletic commission.

Admission is $1.50 for ringside, $1 general and 50 cents for children. Advance reservations may be made by calling JU 7-9923 or JU 4-8004.

Amazing Gaels Capture Title By Downing Rec Kids, 34-28

St. Gabriel's flawless Gaels pocketed the Class A City Elementary League championship Saturday by downing a stubborn Rec Department five, 34-28.

The Gaels, racing to their ninth straight conquest, left little doubt as to their superiority. They led at the quarter junctions, 12-3, 20-10, and 28-15. Not once were they seriously threatened.

Jump-shot artist Bill Scott heroed the win with 13 points. Gary Mollosi paced the losers with 11.

Defeat gave the Rec quint a 7-2 mark, both losses at the hands of the Gaels.

In B League action, St. Stephens hiked its record to 8-0 with a win over Sacred Heart. Westview upset St. Gabriel's in double overtime, 20-18.

Gary Podesta and Bruce Howard sparkled as the Crusaders defeated the Dragons, 28-14. Each had 8 points. Cornell Holmes bucketed 6 markers for the Dragons.

Thief Grabs Jewelry, Also Taps Piggy Bank

A thief made off with $302 in jewelry and $5 from a piggy bank Monday in raiding a home at 1118 Hanover street.

The victim, Joe C. Suttle, an upholsterer, said the invader made the haul by ransacking two bedroom bureau drawers.

Taken were two watches, two necklaces, an onyx ring, and the piggy bank.

Entry was made through an unlocked kitchen window.

South City Quintet Clips Trojans, 25-24

Colma's eighth-grade Trojans dropped to second place in the Peninsula Elementary League last week as they were toppled again by South San Francisco, 25-24.

Coach Jim Schafer's boys were in control the first half, but fell apart badly in the third quarter.

Sonny Stroller was tops in defeat, bagging 13 points, high for the game.

The Trojans, 3-2, meet Burlingame this Friday. The locals won last time, 39-20, in a runaway.

Colma's seventh graders, meanwhile, have their eyes on the title. They captured win number three last week over South City, 26-21, behind the 15-point output of John Hodges.

Others shining for Colma were Ron Montoya, Dick Rogers, Peter Pollet and Richard Honnick. Next opponent is league-leading Burlingame this Friday.

Rifle & Pistol Club Fetes New Officers

Mission Rifle & Pistol Club celebrated installation of new officers Saturday with a steak dinner at the Colonial in Colma.

The group, reviewing last year's activities, termed their December Turkey Shoot "our biggest success." Top honors went to Daly City's L. Vanini.

S. C. Subs Nip Rams, 32-31

Two free throws in the last 15 seconds gave South City's Jayvees a comeback 32-31 victory over the Westmoor varsity Tuesday at the Warrior gym.

The Rams, now 3-8 for the season, played good ball despite a big handicap. Two regulars, forward Rich Lewetzou and guard Tony Russo, were sitting out suspensions for missing practice.

Westmoor's luckless 30's lost the opener, 20-17. It left them with a 2-9 mark.

Surrender Lead

The varsity battle found the Rams leading until the middle of the final quarter. Halftime tally favored the locals, 17-10.

Leading Westmoor were Gary Twitty and Dave Simons, both pumping in 8 points. Center Larry Schoenfeldt got 7. South City's Bobby Schener, however, was high with 12.

As usual, the Ram lightweights had trouble hitting the hoop. Their defense, aided by newcomer Wy, a guard, looked much better. Rich Blakemore led in scoring with 5 digits.

Tony Giammona's varsity hammered Capuchino's reserves last Friday, 51-43. Lewetzou, leading Ram pointmaker, keyed the attack with 18 points. Schoenfeldt and Simons followed with 11 each.

Big Outburst

A 21-point splurge in the third quarter erased Cap's 24-18 intermission edge as the Rams caught fire. They took comfortable command, 39-32, going into the final period.

Byron Van Alstyne's 30's were sabotaged in the first game of the doubleheader, 47-9. They tallied only one point in both the opening and final quarter.

The Westmoor fives clash with Burlingame's subs this Thursday afternoon on the enemy court.

Pedromen Again Threaten Loop-Pacing M&O Keglers

San Pedo Lunch's bowlers, knocking on the front door all season, get the golden opportunity to take the Daly City-Colma League lead next Tuesday when they clash with top dog McGahey & Olson.

The M&O combine, on the other hand, could hike its two-game edge and coast on to the title. The leaders have a 38-22 record, while San Pedro is 36-24.

A sweep by Vince & Fred's over Brisbane Tuesday lowered the baysiders to fourth place, three games out. Towne House won two out of three from Paul's Flowers to grab third spot.

M&O rolled on with a split verdict over Luce Meats, and San Pedro decisioned Thur Meats by the same margin.

Lunchman Al Wright posted high series for the evening with a 600 tally. P. McIvers of Towne House had a 258 for high singles. The liquor lads also grabbed high team series with a beefy 2649.

In other top games next week, Towne House faces Daly City Cleaners, and Brisbane meets Carmona Chemical.
